PayGen integrates with JP Morgan Chase for electronic bill presentment and payment services

Strategic integrations with financial institutions enable mutual clients to accelerate implementation of PayGen's biller direct real-time bill payments.

Billers engage PayGen to offer electronic bill presentment and payment services, manage settlement and provide tools for reporting and reconciliation. PayGen offers a variety of payment methods: ACH, credit and debit cards and is innovating with real-time payments and request for payment. Having an established integration with the biller's financial institution, simplifies the onboarding and speeds time to market.

"Integration with JP Morgan Chase is one of many that PayGen will leverage to deliver bill payment and presentment options for our clients" according to Anthony Nazzaro, CEO and co-founder of PayGen.

Many billers find that their current bill pay vendor no longer meets their needs. They are struggling with adopting new payment options, maintaining aging infrastructure and reacting quickly to their client's ever evolving needs and new requirements.

PayGen manages a cutting-edge roadmap, running on the latest Microsoft technology stack hosted in Azure. We deliver new features, functionality and payment methods as product upgrades for clients to enable. Our plug-in architecture for integration and customization, accelerates client's implementation timelines.
