

North American Bancard partners with PayGen for bill pay innovation

Fintech companies integrate to optimize secure payments

TROY, Michigan — North American Bancard, LLC, (NAB) a U.S.-based leader in fintech solutions, today announced a new integration with digital bill pay solutions company PayGen. This move aims to support industries and financial institutions in the bill-collecting process with advanced reporting, security, and ease.

PayGen supports a variety of industries such as financial and loan services, insurance, healthcare, and utility, and is a reliable platform for those in treasury, billing, and accounts receivable roles.

"We are pleased to announce a world-class digital bill pay technology with the trusted partner NAB. PayGen's cloud-native payment platform right-sized to address the complex needs of large billers integrated with NAB's robust card processing platform delivers a payment solution that meets the business needs of any large client offering bill payment and presentment" according to Louis Obsuth, CEO and CTO of PayGen.

NAB's integration with PayGen will enhance the client experience through higher acceptance rates, lower operating costs, and diligent fraud management. This aims to bring both billers and billers peace of mind with multiple options to pay bills, faster reconciliation times, and reliable customer support.
